

NATIVE IMAGES

Past and Present

Sioux niece of Chief Sitting Bull and wife of George Pembridge, N.W.M.P., Fort Walsh, ca. 1878
[source: Saskatchewan Archives Board]

If you have photographs which you think may be of interest to our readers, please forward them to the REVIEW and we will do our best to include them in a subsequent issue.

L-R: Jones Goodstoney, Stony; Samson, Cree; Pakan or James Seenum, Cree.
This photograph was taken in 1886 in Hamilton, Ontario, where the three chiefs were attending a Centenary Methodist Meeting.
[source: Glenbow-Alberta Institute].

Piapot, Cree Indian Chief, ca. 1880s [source: Glenbow-Alberta Institute]

In reference to the appointment of A.M. Graham as Indian Agent, Piapot once asserted: "Now I know the Government is going to break the Treaty because when it was signed it was understood that it would last as long as the grass grew, the winds blew, the rivers ran, and men walked on two legs, and now they have sent us an Agent who has only one leg."

KAL-AR-C-TOM

BEARSHIELD

Bear Shield. Blackfoot Warrior, ca. 1878
[source: Glenbow-Alberta Institute]

Eagle Arrow, Blood Indian, 1927
[original: Glenbow-Alberta Institute]

