

NATIVE IMAGES

World War Volunteers from Saskatchewan

PLATE 1

File Hills Colony Soldiers and Parents c. 1917

4th row (L-R): David Bird, Joe McKay, Joe Peters, Ed Sanderson

3rd row (L-R): L. Harry Stonechild, Leonard Creely, Jack Walker,
Alex Brass Ernest Goforth

2nd row (L-R): Moostatik, Feather, W.M. Graham Indian
Commissioner, Pimotat, Kee-wisk

1st row (L-R): Jos McNab, Shavetail, Day Walker, Jack Fisher
(Young Man) [Saskatchewan Archives Board and Saskatchewan Indian Magazine].

PLATE 2 (L-R) Privates Andrew W. Anderson (Gordan's Band) and Sam Brass (Peepeekesis Band), c. 1917 [Mrs. Clara Pratt].

PLATE 3

Private Walter Anderson (Gordan's Band), c. 1917 [Muriel David (nee Anderson)].

PLATE 4 Joe Crow Chief, left, and his brother Nick King, Blood Indians, 1918 [Glenbow Archives]

PLATE 5

Nick King, Blood Indian in Victory Dance Outfit for World War I, 1918 [Glenbow Archives]

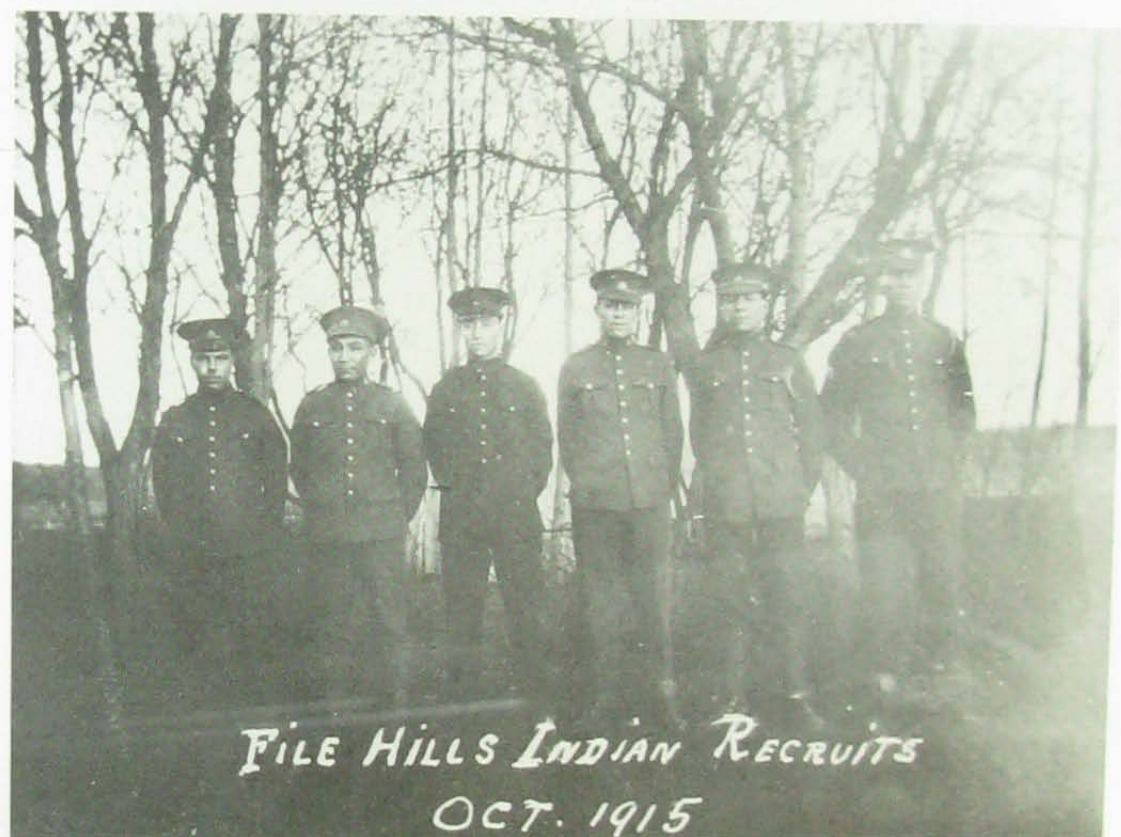

PLATE 6

Cree Indian Recruits from File Hills, Saskatchewan, 1915
(L-R) David Bird, Joe McKay, Leonard Creely, Jack
Unidentified person, Harry Stonechild [Gle
Archives]

PLATE 7 (L-R) L. Vern Pratt and Airman R. Wilfred Pratt (Gordan's Band) in front of Punnichy School c. 1943. (Photo retouched) [Mrs. Clara Pratt].

PLATE 8

On furlough in Frankfurt Germany, c. 1951

(L-R): Harry Black, Vincent Gamble, John Bird, Norman Henderson, Isiah Halkett [Isiah Halkett, Norman Henderson and the Saskatchewan Indian Veteran's Association].