Luff Actually: A Rez Christmas Story

Written and directed by Curtis Peeteetuce, Luff Actually is a story of friendship, family and romance. Christmas time summons feelings both old and new, primarily in the area of love. This year, the kohkoms of Kiweetnook decide to host a Christmas party at dear old Seegoose Sinclair's. Unexpected guests complicate matters. The evening results in frazzles and festivity involving estranged family, obsessive romance, a love triangle and internet dating! Love may not be such a splendid thing after all, especially for the people of Kiweetnook.
