

STARS (Student Teachers' Anti-Racism Society) Presents:

Confronting Racism through Comedy

Wednesday, January 27 4:00-5:30 in the College of Education Rm 2001

Join us for an afternoon of comedy, popcorn and good discussion! We will be viewing different comedic approaches that address racism. Sheelah McLean, admired teacher and leader in anti-racist education, will share with us how she uses comedy as an effective tool to teach anti-racism in her classroom.
