

The Humanities Research Unit and Departments of History and English Present

a Public Lecture

by

TOM CLARK

“Discourses of Ethnic Obligation and National Reconciliation: Close Readings of 2008’s Parliamentary Apology Resolutions in Canada and Australia”

Wednesday October 21, 2009

3:30 p.m., 108 Arts

Dr. Clark is currently on sabbatical from the School of Communication and the Arts at Victoria University (Melbourne), Australia, where he is a Senior Lecturer specializing in discourse analysis and rhetorical studies. In 2009 he is a Visiting Fellow at the Robarts Centre for Canadian Studies, York University.

EVERYONE WELCOME

Refreshments will be served.