

Document One: The Murray-Huron Treaty of 1760

THESE are to certify that the CHIEF of the HURON tribe of Indians, having come to me in the name of His Nation, to submit to His BRITANNICK MAJESTY, and make Peace, has been received under my Protection, with his whole Tribe; and henceforth no English Officer or party is to molest, or interrupt them in returning to their Settlement at LORETTE; and they are received upon the same terms with the Canadians, being allowed the free Exercise of their Religion, their Customs, and Liberty of trading with the English: -- recommending it to the Officers commanding the Posts, to treat them kindly.

Given under my hand at Lonqueil, this 5th day of September, 1760.

By the Genl's Command,
JOHN COSNAN,
Adjut. Genl.

J.A. Murray
